

Notice:

Eugene Bierbaum resigned from office of president of FSAP on April 15, 2018. Consequently, first vice-president Helen Popovich assumed the office of president, and second vice-president Jacquelyn Pierce assumed the office of first vice-president, thereby creating a vacancy in the office of second vice-president.

FSAP bylaws state that at the next annual session vacancies in any office other than president or first vice-president shall be filled for the unexpired term (Article VI, Section 2. E). Therefore, on May 19, 2018, during the next annual session of FSAP, an election will be held to fill the position of second vice-president for the remainder of the 2017-2019 biennium.
