

Which Chart Best Defines Your Organization?

Barbara Proctor, PRP, FSAP Education Chairman

Review your bylaws and other governing documents to understand the flow of authority to ensure your bylaws meet the needs of your organization, or to understand the structure of your client's organization.

G: GOVERNMENT ENTITIES – CITY COUNCIL

GOVERNING DOCUMENTS

BOARDS OR COMMITTEES
Make Decisions

CITY COUNCIL
Elected by Citizens
Make Decisions

GENERAL PUBLIC
Elect Officials
Right to Speak in Debate

ADVISORY COMMITTEES
Make Recommendations

H: GOVERNMENT ENTITIES – SCHOOL BOARD

GOVERNING DOCUMENTS

COMMITTEES
Make Recommendations

SCHOOL BOARD
Elected by Citizens
Make Decisions

GENERAL PUBLIC
Elect Officials
Right to Speak in Debate

ADVISORY COMMITTEES
Make Recommendations

I: COMMUNITY ASSOCIATIONS

GOVERNING DOCUMENTS

COMMITTEES
Make Decisions

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
Elected by Members
Make Decisions

MEMBERS/OWNERS
Elect Board Members
Right to Speak at Board Meetings

COMMITTEES
Make Recommendations

Every organization can benefit from using proper parliamentary terminology and procedure to assist them to have meetings that members want to attend, and trained leaders to better engage members, to allow the organization to be more effective in its community.