

Charting the Course: Cruise Around Florida

SAVE THE DATE: NOVEMBER 8, 2025

It's almost time for the virtual FSAP Fall Meeting and Henry M. Robert Day Training. We're cooking up a meeting that's anything but ordinary—think dynamic training sessions packed with variety, energy, and a few surprises. Whether you're into practical tips, creative twists, or just curious to learn something new, there'll be something for everyone.

Come for the learning, stay for the fun—and maybe even leave with a few new tricks up your sleeve. Hope to see you there!

This month's newsletter has the proposed bylaws amendments that will be presented at the Fall Meeting along with articles and regular features.

Henry Martyn Robert, the author of Robert's Rules of Order, was a U.S. Army officer who transformed the way organizations conduct meetings by creating America's most widely used manual of parliamentary procedure. His journey from military officer to parliamentary pioneer began with a moment of public embarrassment—he was asked to lead a church meeting and realized he had no idea how to do it. Learn the rest of the story in this workshop.

Bonus: Co-Chairs--A Good Idea?

Have you ever encountered a group or organization that has co-chairs? It seems that this leadership title keeps cropping up more frequently. This title not only is non-standard, but its meaning and role raise many questions for parliamentarians.

Read about it in this article.
