

The Florida Parliamentarian Monthly News & Updates

August 16, 2025

Charting the Course: Sail on the FSAP Cruise Ship

In This Issue:

The August theme is back to school with parliamentary procedure. Take a closer look inside the school system to see how parliamentary procedure supports having efficient meetings that achieve goals. Then enjoy the real life experiences of how parliamentary procedure helped members achieve those goals.

The lesson this month is on the motion to amend. Challenge yourself and master this motion. You will also find the reports on the first Fifth Tuesday program and the District Three Conference as well as the regular features on tech tips, round up of leadership, education, and membership activities, book report, and something on the lighter side. Download, read or print, and enjoy!
